Terms of Sale

1. This is an online and mail-bid sale. Absentee bids will be accepted by mail, fax, email and phone until the day before the live online sale. On the day of the live online sale, only bids placed via the live online platform will be accepted: no phone, fax, email or mail bids can be entered on the day of the sale.
2. All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. All bids (whether placed online or by mail, fax, email or phone) will be treated as limits and lots will be purchased below these limits where competition permits. Lots will be sold on the date of the online sale.
3. Absentee bidders should be mindful that bids submitted in irregular increments may be rounded to a lower bid to comply with the online platform's established bidding increments.
4. Unless exempt by law, the buyer will be required to pay 7.5% sales tax on the total purchase price of all lots delivered in Ohio. Purchasers may also be liable for compensating use taxes in other states, which are solely the responsibility of the purchaser. Foreign bidders may be required to pay duties, fees or taxes in their respective countries, which are also the responsibility of the bidders.
5. This is not an approval sale. Any claims for adjustment by bidders must be made within three days after receipt of lots purchased. No lots may be returned without our written permission. By submitting bids you agree to the Terms of Sale.
6. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids. Registration of unknown bidders on the live online platform will constitute approval only when the bidder provides an acceptable credit card number with registration.
7. This is a reserve auction. The estimates of value are intended solely as a guide. Starting prices for this sale are at approximately two-thirds of estimate, though this may vary. Kolbe & Fanning reserve the right to purchase items in this sale for customers or stock at their discretion.
8. A buyer's premium of 17.5% will be added to the cost of all lots purchased. There is no additional charge or commission for executing your bids.
9. We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale for any reason.
10. All postage, insurance and shipping charges will be added to the buyer's invoice. There will be a $3.00 charge per lot for processing.
11. A late payment fee of 2% per month will be charged on accounts remaining unpaid 30 days after the sale.
12. This sale is conducted in U.S. dollars. Payment may be made by check, money order, credit card, PayPal or wire transfer. All checks must be in U.S. dollars, drawn on U.S. banks and have electronic encoding. Our bank account details will be provided on request for wire transfers, and any bank charges must be paid by the sender. Invoices may be paid by credit card or PayPal, but the bidder agrees to pay a 3% bank fee for doing so.
13. Lots to be mailed to addresses not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, postal insurance will be obtained. Packages covered by private insurance will be so covered at a cost of 1% of total value, to be paid by the buyer.
14. Title to all lots remains with the cataloguer until paid for in full. Payment must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of material. The discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received is reserved.
15. All lots are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors or typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot be responsible for your errors; please check your bid sheet carefully.

Outer margins of 1804 dollar plates a bit worn, not affecting images. Very good or better. $300

One of Mehl's most important sales, made all the more special by the inclusion of large photographic enlargements of the 1804 dollar. These plates were distributed selectively by Mehl and are rarely encountered outside of the deluxe edition Dunham catalogue. Ex Armand Champa, who had these plates tipped into the catalogue by his binder Alan Grace. Includes a handwritten note by Champa to this effect. Adams A+: "Landmark Sale. Virginia shilling 1822 $5. Prices realized list included. Near fine. $80
A coin collector for over a quarter century, William Cutler Atwater's penchant for quality is evident throughout the sale. Indeed, the superb condition of the coins have prompted many to consider it superior to the Dunham collection in overall importance. Mehl himself, in a 1946 letter to Thomas Elder, described the Atwater auction as "the most important I have ever held."

Merkin's catalogues were more terse than those of New Netherlands, but, like that noted firm, they include an enormous amount of information. Part of this is because many of the sales were catalogued by Walter Breen, with other prominent numismatists also contributing cataloguing to the Merkin series. Complete sets are scarce, and include a couple mail-bid sales that are infrequently seen.

Twenty-nine New Netherlands catalogues, comprising most of those issued during the Ford and Breen eras. Adams, Volume II, page 194: "In November, 1950, Charles Wormser hired John Ford, and perhaps the most important chapter of numismatic cataloguing was begun. Sometimes abrasive but always insightful, Ford ranks in a class with Sylvester Crosby, Lyman Low, David Proskey, and Wayte Raymond as one of the great numismatists this country has produced. His cataloguing features meticulous accuracy and conservative grading; his descriptions are full and informative, covering a range of material that spans the gamut of our hobby. Others have rivaled Ford's penchant for detail, but none have better explored the by-ways of history and tradition for which numismatics are such a natural entry. As if one world-class numismatist were not enough, New Netherlands hired Walter Breen in 1952. Blessed with a restlessly inquiring mind and a prodigious memory, Breen added new dimensions to the firm's research. His findings on die states, diagnostic features and the then condition census add another rich layer to the utility that New Netherlands' catalogues will always possess."

es; 926 lots; 5 fine plates. Hand-priced in pencil with buyers' names. Spine perished, nearly disbound; good or better. $60
 Important, with this catalogue including O'Hagan's American coins. At a time when Montagu's 1630 Briot Pattern Broad brought £17.10, a Syracusan dekadrachm from the Ashburnham collection sold for £23, and Montagu's aureus of Marc Anthony realized £34, London saleroom habitués must truly have been shocked to see an American coin get knocked down for £435! Lots 760-785 in this installment of the O'Hagan sale featured a "Washington Cent, 1793, struck in gold," 1849 and 1851 octagonal Humbert gold slugs and, most notably, an 1849 Cincinnati Mining and Trading Co. $10, finely illustrated on one of the plates and one of "only two specimens being known, according to Mr. C.H. Shinkle's list." Rather amusingly, the main heading describes the denomination as "Two-Dollars," though the coin's reverse legend is correctly cited as TEN DOLLARS. Manville & Robertson 212-214.

A significant sale. Clay was a Manchester numismatist mostly remembered today for this sale and for his work on the coinage of the Isle of Man. Adams 9 for the Strobridge series and C for the Woodward series, receiving his highest rating (A+ overall, A in large cents, colonials, Washingtonia, comments and British). Attinelli 62, where he implies that Strobridge, though credited on the title as the cataloguer, may have played a lesser role: "Messrs. W.E. Woodward and W.H. Strobridge also contributed slightly to the above sale." The presence of very obvious counterfeits in the sale (including two NE "pennies") makes one wonder about the level of involvement by Woodward (Strobridge specifically mentions them in his introduction). Davis 1025.

The 1874 Groux Sale*310 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF THE ENTIRE CABINET OF ANTIQUE, MEDIEVAL AND MODERN COINS, MEDALS AND JETONS, FOR MANY YEARS KNOWN AND CELEBRATED AS THE GROUX COLLECTION, NOW THE PROPERTY OF A LADY IN WASHINGTON. New York, April 7-9, 1874. 8vo, original printed wraps. iv, (3)-57, (1) pages; 1173 lots. Some chipping at edges; mostly unopened; near fine.$35

Strobridge's introduction borders on the poetic and is well worth reading: "The 'Groux Collection,' which has had a name in American numismatology for the last quarter of a century, is now before the public, with the veil removed. ... The fond old dreamer whose name it bears has himself passed away, and the fate that befallth all collections is about to come also upon the one with which he had freely mingled his very life." Adams 17: "Carrara medals. Proof 1829, 1830 5¢. Papal, 'ghostly' coinage. A collection of the widest scope."

The 1875 Gay Sale*311 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF ANCIENT AND MODERN COINS... BEING THE ENTIRE COLLECTION OF JOSEPH E. GAY... New York, April 28, 1875 and following. 8vo, original printed wraps. iv, 100 pages; 1809 lots. Near fine.$60

The 1875 Stenz Sale*312 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF THE STENZ COLLECTION OF MODERN COINS, MEDALS, AND TOKENS, THE MOST EXTENSIVE EVER PUBLISHED IN*AMERICA. New York: Leavitt, May 17, 1875 and following. 8vo, original printed wraps. viii, 236 pages; 3871 lots. Wraps a bit worn; spine taped; very good or better.$50

One of the great sales in the Strobridge series, termed by Attinelli "a work of the greatest importance and utility to the American collector seeking information relative to the branch of coins principally treated upon." Tragically, Adams notes, "Strobridge's labours on the monumental Stenz collection caused him to lose most and, ultimately, all of his eyesight. His malady, detached retinas, is repaired routinely by modern medicine." Adams A+: "Charles I 1642-44 shilling. Louis XVIII 5 inch medal. 1849 Mormon $5. MS 1804 25¢. RR Jackson medals. Superb German." Attinelli 73.

The 1875 Taylor Sale*313 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF ANCIENT AND MODERN COINS AND MEDALS, COMPRISING THE WHOLE OF THE CABINET FORMED BY THE LATE COL. JAMES H. TAYLOR, OF CHARLESTON, S.C.

A massive and wide-ranging sale, yet including the keys of the various series (1802 half dime, 1823 and 1827 quarters, 1796 half dollar, 1794 dollar, etc.). Adams 23 (A overall and for half cents, large cents and early silver). Attinelli 73-74.
